

i am writing to complain to the FCC that I am being charged FCC fees on both my local line (verizon) and my long distance line (ATT) which amount to double the service fee. I do not think it is legal to charge me these two charges for one telephone in my home. I also note that the fees are double the cost of the basic service, which is a secret, sneaky tax.